Extra cost = USD 150.00 for the whole group

BERLIN Tour:

After visit to The Camp and will drive of about 45 minutes - you will meet your private Guide in Former East-Berlins Historic Centre at the New Synagogue. This outstanding, Moorish styled place of Jewish worship was built in 1866 and renovated in 1995 to become with its gilded dome again a landmark of the German capital (no inside visit). Pass Friedrichstrasse Train Station to have a look at the sculpture "Trains to life – trains to death" by Frank Meissler, dedicated to Jewish Children transported from here to Great-Britain in 1938/39.

Arrive at Germany's national symbol the Brandenburg Gate and the new parliament built inside the former Reichstag Building for a short snapshot.

You will then visit the famous Memorial Dedicated to the Murdered Jews of Europe (known as the Holocaust Memorial) with its 2711 tilted stone blocks, designed by Peter Eisenman.

Not far from the Memorial you will be given some time for a snack lunch.

Be then prepared to visit one of the world's most spectacular museums, the Jewish Museum by Daniel Libeskind opened in 2001 which has attracted since then more then 350 000 visitors.

The architect calls himself his work a "walkable" sculpture. Your guide will give you an introduction on the architecture and you will have some time to explore a bit of 2000 years of German-Jewish history.

After all these varicoloured impressions you will have time to reflect your day in Berlin until your driver will bring you back safely to your ship.
